

Vlada Baranova

vlada@eu.spb.ru
vbaranova@hse.spb.ru
+7(812)7142544

Education and qualifications

2006, October, Candidate of History, specialization 070007 “Ethnology, Anthropology. Ethnography” (Ph.D. equivalent).

Title of the thesis “Azovean Greeks: Ethnic Self-Identity and Language” (defense at Peter the Great Museum of Anthropology and Ethnography (Kunstkamera) of the RAS).

2003-2006, European University at St. Petersburg, postgraduate course, sociolinguistics.

2002-2003, European University at St. Petersburg, M.A. in Ethnology.

1997-2002, St. Petersburg State University, Philological Faculty, diploma with honors.

Grants and Research Experience

2009-2010, “Language Loyalty, construction of identity and maintenance of minority languages” (supported by Research Center State University – Higher School of Economics).

2009, Migration Processes and the Education System: Educational Migration and Migrant Children at School. Project “Migrant Children” (project supervisor Vlada Baranova). <http://slon.hse.spb.ru/en/topics-and-projects/topics-and-projects/migration.html>

2008-2009, Language and Identity of Ouroums (Mariopol’s Greeks) (American Council of Learned Societies).

2007-2009, Collective project «Developing Corporuses of texts for minority languages of Russia (incl. Kalmyk)» (RFFI, № 07-06-00278). <http://pole.iphil.ru/main>

2007-2008 research project № 07-01-138 «Teaching native languages and ethnic identity» (supported by Research Center State University – Higher School of Economics).

2007-2008 research project № 07-01-138 «Teaching native languages and ethnic identity (Kalmyks, Nivkhs)» (supported by Research Center State University – Higher School of Economics).

2005, History of Azov Greeks, archival work, Ukraine (supported by EUSPb).

2004, Natives of Russian Far East in Post-soviet era (support by INO-Center, 2004, collective project, supervisor Elena Perekhvalskaya);

Research Interests

Sociolinguistics, ethnic identity, endangered languages, language policy, field linguistics, typology, Kalmyk language, Greek diaspora, Labour Migration; Networks

Work experience

2006 – Present, Assistant Professor - State University – Higher School of Economics (190008, St. Petersburg, ul. Soyuza Pechatnikov, 16, 413).

Taught such notable courses as “Sociolinguistics”, “Language policy of USSR and RF”, “Russian language and academic writing”.

2006-2009, junior research fellow – Institute for Linguistic Studies, Russian Academy of Sciences, Department of Languages of Russia (St. Petersburg, 199053, Tuchkov per., 9).

Selected Publications

(Full list is over 40 publications, mostly in Russian)

Book

Jazyk I etnicheskaya identichnost'. Urumy I rimeji Priazovja. Moscow, 2010. – 287 p.

Edited

Issledovanija po grammatike kalmytskogo jazyka / Red. S. S. Say, V.V. Baranova, N. V. Serdobolskaja. SPb.: Nauka, 2009. — 895 c. (ACTA LINGUISTICA PETROPOLITANA, 2009. Tom V, ch. 2).

Related articles

Memory of Deportation and Language Identity in Kalmykia // Endangered Languages and History. Proceedings of the Thirteenth FEL Conference (24-26 September 2009) / H. Elnazarov and N. Ostler (eds.). 2009. P. 67-71.

Jazykovaja situatsija v Kalmykii: sociolinvsticheskij ocherk // Issledovanija po grammatike kalmytskogo jazyka / Red. S. S. Say, V.V. Baranova, N. V. Serdobolskaja. SPb.: Nauka, 2009. P. 22-41. (The language situation in Kalmykia: a sociolinguistic outline).

Fieldwork

2006-2008, fieldwork in Kalmykia

2001-2005, collecting data on sociolinguistic situation in Roumean and Orououmean villages.

2001, 2004, Minority Language of Russian Far East (Nivkh, Oroch, Udihe).